BEHZOD ABDURAIMOV @ HCC!

It's a challenging time of year to add anything to an already busy piano schedule, but I URGE you to use the giant QR code on my studio wall, or the one here, to purchase tickets to this man's concert this next Saturday night, April 18, @ HCC's Smith Theatre, 7:30pm.

What's so exciting? Google him, and take a listen. Better yet, come hear him live, and get an autograph (and a chance to ask him questions!) on Saturday night! N.B.: good seats are still available in the balcony (option where the site says "orchestra"), and youth tickets are free!
